

Happy Thanksgiving!

Best wishes from Hoosier Patriots to you and your families for a blessed Thanksgiving. As we gather with friends and family thanks be to God, who gave us this wonderful Land of the Free.

Grinning

Donald Trump reminds some Americans of a John Wayne figure, since many don't stand for American principles today. Few run for office without any political experience to fight for those principles. There aren't many "champions of America" that most Americans can turn to in times of trouble; those who will always put Americans first.

But fears that Donald Trump has no clue about what needs to be done to "save the country" have begun to fade with his first three choices of those who can serve in a Trump White House... and annoy liberals.

These names and assigned positions have the liberals' minds contorting in pain: Lt. Gen. Michael Flynn (U.S. Army, retired) for National Security Advisor to the President; Senator Jeff Sessions (R-AL) for Attorney General; and Rep. Mike Pompeo (R-KS) for CIA Director.

The agonized cries from the Democrats echo in their safe spaces, as Lady Liberty grins and the ghosts of the Founders heave a sigh of relief...

Monday Morning Newswire

Non-partisan conservative commentary published by Hoosier Patriots, 8329 Carolwood Court, Evansville, IN 47715-4595, each Monday morning and sent by e-mail to those who subscribe. ©2016 - All Rights Reserved.

HOOSIER PATRIOTS

Jim Bratten

Subscribe through e-mail at:
hpnw.jimb@gmail.com

The Democrats' journey to oblivion

State of Denial

Why is it only people on the Left act like unruly 5 or 6 year-olds when they lose an election? Don't they understand the American voters punished them at the ballot box because their misbehavior couldn't be allowed to continue?

A simple answer is that tantrums attract media coverage and progressives are concerned primarily with how things look on the surface. If they create enough chaos and disruption they will carry every news cycle that exists... and score a place in the Saul Alinsky Pantheon to Progressivism.

The more complicated explanation is that they actually believe that any victory achieved by those "on the Right" is illegitimate. (How can voters possibly vote for a candidate who doesn't believe in all things "collective"? Middle Americans don't understand what's best for them.)

Because of this insulation from reality, they refuse to admit their hard-left economic theories don't work in real world application. They simply cannot accept failure; it has to be the fault of the uneducated. It's never their failed policies or programs.

When they attack systems of governance based on Judeo-Christian law and morality, forcing the populace to feel revulsion at their assaults on faith and traditional culture, they demean and marginalize those who cannot grasp their secular superiority. These "disaffected" will refuse to abide their attempted cultural transformation.

Their ideological intransigence and arrogance at all things traditionally "American" continues to divorce them from any commonality with most Americans.

Unable to comprehend the distaste felt by traditional voters who see their country's progressive transformation as undesirable, the Left, in their present guise of today's Democrat Party, will continue to lose to the "Will of the People." Even during President Obama's global farewell tour of the last few days, he refuses to admit the election loss was due to his own progressive policies and Hillary Clinton's attachment to, and endorsement of, those policies.

This election was a resounding mandate from the American people: a repudiation of liberalism; a massive rejection of progressive policies and core ideology.

President Obama's planned transformation – an America reshaped to his own agenda – has been rejected. Denial by the Democrat Party and their presidential candidate Hillary Clinton that Obama's eight year demolition would continue has been rejected by the voters, decisively. But they never acknowledge that their wounds, created by massive Democrat election losses since 2009, have been self-inflicted:

- 33 state houses
- 13 governorships
- 64 U.S. House of Representatives seats
- 13 U.S. Senate seats
- One presidency

There are now 45 states controlled by Republican governors or at least one majority GOP legislative body. States controlled by a Democrat governor with Democrat-run legislatures number FIVE (Rhode Island, Connecticut, California, Hawaii and Oregon). Republicans now control 69 of 99 state legislatures in the U.S. The number of Congressional offices controlled by Democrats is the lowest since 1929. This is a case of the "incredible shrinking political party" but you won't see that in the press.

Marc Thiessen, former speech writer in the G. W. Bush administration and regular Fox News contributor, voiced this hilarious observation of the Clinton campaign's cluelessness to the reasons for Hillary's loss:

"There are no electoral votes in the State of Denial."

We Be People

In a time of rampant secularism, the purpose of Thanksgiving Day can be blurred. One example of the necessity for its establishment is George Washington's Thanksgiving Day Proclamation of 1789. Here are some excerpts from his address to recommend the giving of thanks in our new nation:

"Whereas it is the duty of all Nations to acknowledge the providence of almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor - and...

"Whereas both Houses of Congress have... requested me 'to recommend to the People of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signal favors of Almighty God...'

"Now therefore I do recommend and assign Thursday the 26th day of November next to be devoted by the People of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be - That we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks - for His kind care and protection of the People of this country previous to their becoming a Nation - for the signal and manifold mercies, and the favorable interpositions of His providence, which we experienced in the course and conclusion of the late war - for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty, which we have since enjoyed - for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government for our safety and happiness, and... for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and in general for all the great and various favors which He hath been pleased to confer upon us.

"And also that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions - to enable us all, whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually - to render our national government a blessing to all the People, by constantly being a government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed - to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and Us - and generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best."

Washington recommended a day of public thanksgiving and prayer... no separation of church and state necessary.

The Left's 'free speech' protest fraud

The Great Mirage

In the wee hours of Wednesday morning, November 9, Donald Trump delivered his statesmanlike acceptance speech. He went out of his way to emphasize healing and "coming together."

Of course, those words never penetrated the ears of his opposition; the long-time nemesis of traditional American voters had other plans than concession or compromise.

Later that day, the expected anti-Trump protests started, demanding a "do-over." Beginning outside Trump Tower in Manhattan, these soon spread to other major "blue" cities as the pre-planned riots and looting developed, fostered by Soros-hired "victims of hate." Globalists had lost to the "Americans First" voter, but the arrogant elitists in the status quo "establishment" wouldn't accept the outcome.

State-run media and the DNC lauded the protests as prime examples of Americans exercising their "free speech" rights. The lawless activities turned out to be anything but free speech. The vulgar, four-letter-splashed signs and x-rated rants only exposed the real purpose of the "protests": an anti-capitalist push for chaos in an attempt to overturn a legal, national election.

Riots were staged in Portland, Chicago, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, New York and other major cities as radical progressives reacted violently to Hillary's loss. Obscene signs and chants accompanied by raised fists pushed back against police as vehicles and property were vandalized. Rocks and bottles were hurled at police and windows of stores were smashed, the inventories within their walls stolen, their equipment and furnishings destroyed. Law enforcement authorities in the cities were harassed by the leftists. Beaten down by progressives' anti-police attacks across the country on false racial issues, many police officers hesitated to arrest or confine the barbarians who burned Donald Trump in effigy and spray-painted four letter epithets on public property. These weren't protestors. They are anarchists and anti-capitalist Marxists.

As before, the thugs paid by George Soros did what he hired them to do, as in Ferguson, Missouri - create as much chaos and mayhem as possible. The $33 million he spent on Ferguson's destruction was only seed money. As of this writing, Portland, Oregon is in its sixth day of rioting and looting. The Left doesn't like losing but will never go away if not defeated; in this case incarcerated if they break the law.

Rioting and looting now occurring in major Democrat-controlled cities across the U.S. is simply another act in the leftist production of "The Great Mirage."

This George Soros/DNC live drama, encompassing the eight years of the Obama Regime, has hired these supporting actors before: Occupy Wall Street protesters; Keystone XL pipeline demonstrators; Black Lives Matter activists in Ferguson, Baltimore, New York City, Oakland, and elsewhere; DNC-sponsored riots at Trump rallies in Chicago and other cities; and riots in the name of "election justice" in Portland, Oregon. Rumor has it that leftist rent-a-mob members have been paid $1,500 a week to show up, brandishing mass-produced signs, breaking glass, climbing on squad cars and throwing bricks at police. Paid thugs, bussed into the city on a moment's notice, were hired to trash and burn, to create as much mayhem as the Portland police and liberal city management would allow. Somehow, over half of these anarchists did not vote or were not even registered to vote. But that's not their purpose.

Who needs to express decisions at the ballot box, when you can be showcased on live media, and overturn fair election results with mindless destruction of public and private property, for pay?

In Michigan, Arizona and Pennsylvania (so far), leftist activists used a different option: calling to threaten state electors to change their Electoral College votes from Trump to Hillary... or else. If you cannot win the election, just sabotage the system.

Enough!
READ THE CONSTITUTION